

How to Access the UUP Digital Archives

1. Go to <http://library.albany.edu/speccoll/photocollection/photo.asp> or <http://bit.ly/ndyULT> and search the UUP archives

The screenshot shows the search interface for the University at Albany Libraries' Digital Collections. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for Search, Collection Descriptions, About this Site, and Copyright and Use. Below this, a message states: "You have not entered any search terms. Please try again." The search form includes a dropdown menu for "All Fields" and a text input field. Below this, there is a section for selecting the collection to be searched, with radio buttons for various collections. The "United University Professions" collection is selected. A "Submit Search" button is located at the bottom of the form. A note at the bottom of the page states: "Note that only a small portion of the photographs held by the M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives are available online at present. For assistance searching the database and for images not available online, consult the M.E. Grenander Department of Special Collections and Archives Reference staff."

Once there,

- Select a Field: Choose "All Fields"
In box, type in name of person to be searched
- Select a Collection: Choose "United University Professions"
- Click on "Submit Search"

- When you find the photo(s) you're looking for, you'll need to jot down the "photograph number" for each digital image. You'll need to double click on the icon image ...
