The Dr. Nuala McGann Drescher Leave Program is now available for the 2019 spring semester.

DEADLINE:
Nov. 1, 2018

The Dr. Nuala McGann Drescher Affirmative Action/Diversity Leave Program is a negotiated benefit that enhances employment opportunities for people who are preparing for permanent or continuing appointment. Established under the Affirmative Action/Diversity Committee, this Program seeks to promote a broad diversity of award recipients with preference given to minorities, women, employees with disabilities, or employees with military status.

The types of support available include: payment of employee's regular salary by the campus; salary for a replacement; and other related expenses for research or study with a justification.
