CONTINGENT EMPLOYMENT AT SUNY STATE-OPERATED CAMPUSES AND HEALTH SCIENCES CENTERS

91%

Roughly 1 in every 5 professionals and 3 in every 5 academics are contingent.

Professionals:

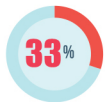

1 in every 4 part-time, temporary professionals earns less than $9,000 a year.

1 in every 4 part-time, temporary professionals has worked in the same SUNY title for more than four years.

Academics:

The percentage of part-time contingent faculty has increased over the last decade. Today, more than one-third of the faculty at the majority of SUNY's state-operated campuses are part time.

2 in every 5 part-time adjuncts and lecturers have worked in the same SUNY title for more than five years.

Half of all full-time and part-time faculty have no path to permanency.

1 in every 3 part-time adjuncts and lecturers earns less than $225 per week; 1 in every 4 earns less than $185 per week.

SUNY is overly dependent on its part-time academics and professionals—those with the lowest pay and the least job security.
